Explore Pathway

KS5 Explore have a bespoke curriculum which enables the students to explore their creativity, the aim of each term is to explore an area of work, in which they will choose a project; develop and showcase it. The students will have the opportunity to expand their drama, music and art skills. The pupils will be able to create pieces to showcase at key events in the college, for example; College open days and festive events. The pupils will also have the opportunity to run a small enterprise project where they will create a craft item, and sell within our Unsworth Community Library Hub. The students will be accredited with Open Award credits.
