

BLOB FAMILIES

The images on the next three pages are all linked to the idea of a sequence of images related to aspects of family life.

The first four Blob Families appeared in the first book, The Big Book of Blob Feelings (2008).

You might like to explore the images either as whole pages or cut up the individual cartoons and sequence the pictures.

Questions which might be asked

- Which image is the happiest?
- Which image is the saddest?
- Which Blob reminds you of a father?
- Which Blob is most like a mother?
- Which image is most like your home?
- How would you change the story?
