

To celebrate Mental Health Awareness Week –

we hope you can help us by supporting each other.

All they need is a coloured background and then putting your son/daughters hands in this position. I understand some may not but that's what makes us all unique. Take a photo and send it to your form teacher. Let's do this and show the LOVE!!!

