What else do I need to know about the Blended Learning timetable?

In order to support the wellbeing of both staff and students at Elms Bank School the Blended Learning timetable comprises a combination of online F2F lessons, Social Media Challenges, Wellbeing Time and independent learning packs.

What is 'Wellbeing Time'?

All form teachers and TA's have a daily designated "Wellbeing Time" – this time is an hour at the beginning of each day. This time can be used to have a F2F Teams session, a shared class read to support Reading for Pleasure or a form wellbeing activity to support 'keep learning, give, take notice, be active and connect'.

The designated slot is 9:00-10:00 however form teachers can liaise with students and families to be flexible around start time. End time has to be 10:00am to ensure commencement of virtual lessons.

What further information is available to support Virtual lessons?

Some departments (Art and Technology) may choose to deliver pre-recorded lessons as opposed to live lessons on Teams. Recordings could be planned to be interactive with opportunities for pausing to complete tasks, provision of model work, exemplars.
